1950 WOODROW WILSON

Woodrow Wilson

NINETEEN FIFTY

Published by the Senior Class of the
WOODROW WILSON HIGH SCHOOL
WASHINGTON, D. C.

Foreword

WHILE THE STAGE is being set for the Human Drama, the prologue proclaims that life shall be the "survival of the fittest." As the curtains of time are raised, the successive stages of the drama come into view. On the first stage, savage actors in crude surroundings are engaged in a brutal combat for the possession of life's bare necessities. Although the actors on the second stage are different, and their costumes more elaborate, their actions are the same. The next stage is on a much higher level of material advance, but primitive animal instincts still dominate the players' actions. The fourth stage is set with modern scenery; actors control the struggle from remote corners of the stage, while go-betweens flatter, curse, deceive, and deal with each other.

Soon the curtain will go up on the fifth stage of the drama. We are both the playwrights and the actors. Shall we be bound to a blind repetition of the past? Or shall we divert the theme from ultimate tragedy to permanent peace and prosperity? We, the world citizens of tomorrow, hold the answer within our grasp.

Dedication

To the great ideal of a just and durable world peace envisioned by countless souls in the past and being molded by the international heroes of the present . . .

To the youth of today who will see peace as world citizens bearing the burden of firmly establishing this ideal . . .

To Woodrow Wilson the man who brings more than any one else translated the vision of this ideal into positive action to see peace assume an aspect of permanence [and] give promise of days from which the anxiety of uncertainty shall be lifted . .

Story of the Year

The sun which shone brightly last September 12 upon Wilson didn't necessarily reflect the spirit of the returning scholars. The sophomores were confused; the juniors, discouraged; the seniors—well, "Hope springs eternal in the human breast." The filling out of a seemingly endless avalanche of cards began, and the office was noisy with those who were disgusted to learn that their schedules had been juggled, leaving them with a first period study hall. The Homecoming Dance Friday night provided a welcome respite from the first arduous week of studying, and it accurately forecasted a successful social season. The opening night game at Fairfax showed that the Tigers seemed to have something special in store.

The second week of school started with an outdoor assembly featuring a drill by the 3rd Infantry Platoon from Ft. Meyer. Section elections were held; an orientation assembly was presented for the still-bewildered newcomers; more cards were filled out; heartless teachers removed everyone from his friends by their unimaginative seating arrangements, and school was well under way for another year, though the balmy weather hindered any would-be efforts to concentrate. The week ended on a rather sour note when the Tigers were trampled by Coolidge's Colts.

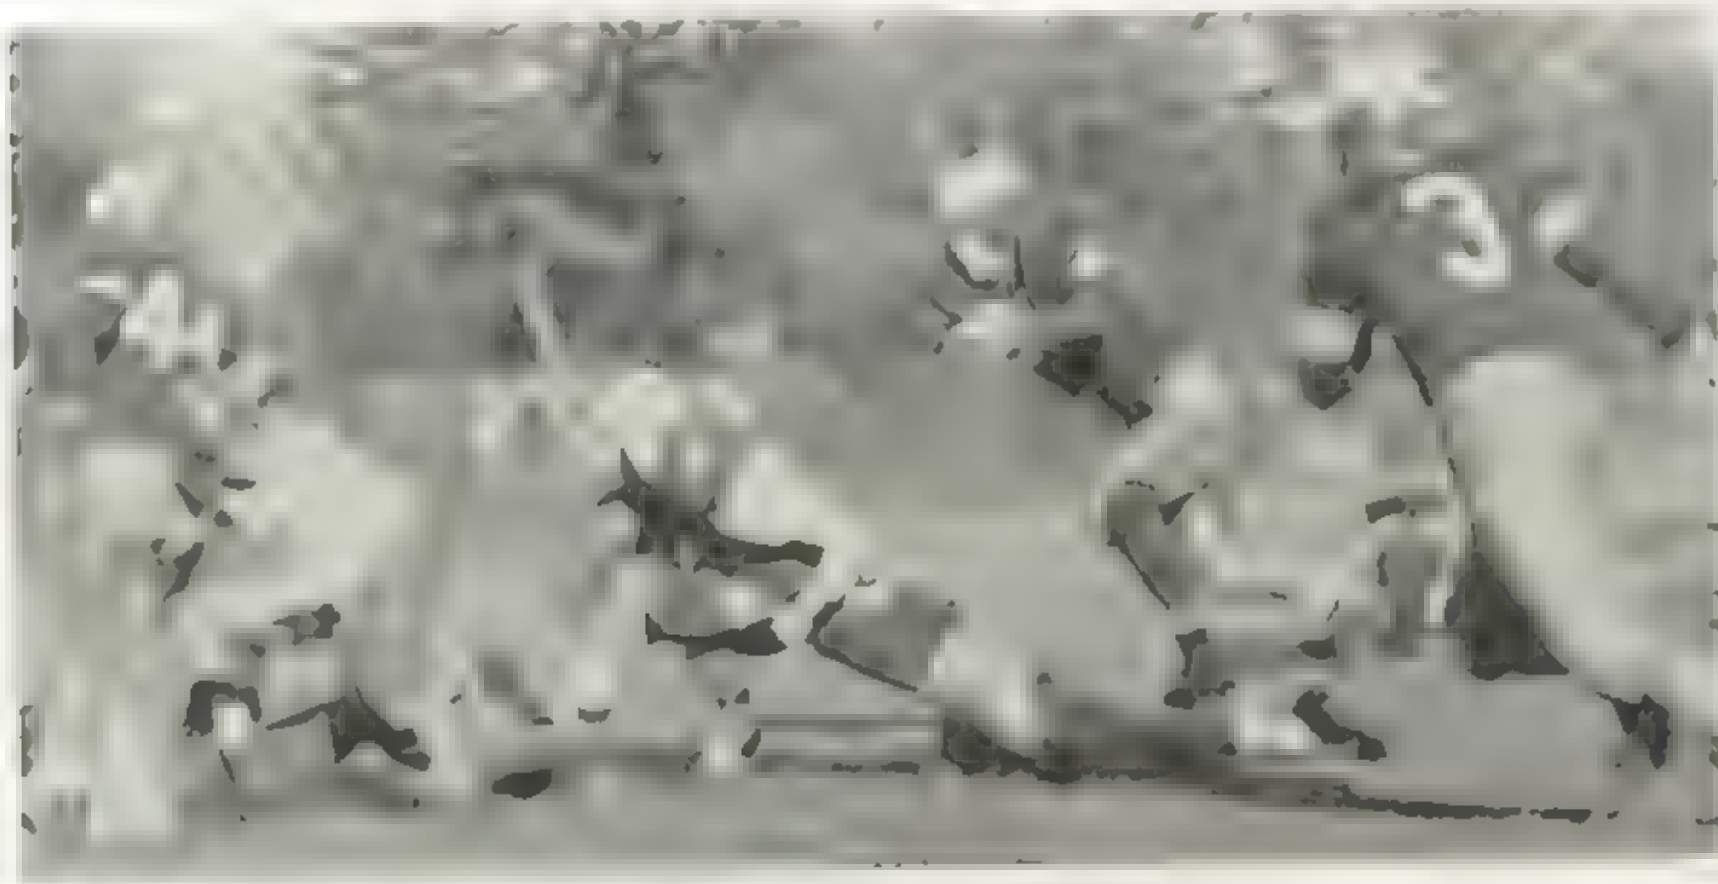

Perennial campaign promises and oratory were revived in the Student Council elections in which

Dick Jewett was elected president, and Preston Kavanagh was elected "veep."

The disillusion contracted by many of the seniors after exposure to the ranking list was quickly cured when the Tigers gave favored Eastern a dose of decisive defeat. Everyone was forced to subject himself to the probings of the dental examiners, and the prevailing topic of section period conversation until Christmas was the fact that none of the dental cards ever seemed to be returned. The results of the eye tests permitted many optimistic souls to decide that, out of consideration for the condition of their eyes, they must decrease the quantity and severity of their studying. Seniors began trudging down to have their Yearbook pictures taken, and for days envelopes were opened and disclosed likenesses which caused horrified exclamations of surprise.

In an effort to sell Yearbooks, the staff and a few others laughingly presented what they called a Yearbook assembly. The only complimentary outcome was that a few of the morbidly curious purchased their Yearbooks. The underclassmen filed through the Armory to have their pictures taken. Some of the suspicious suggested that perhaps teachers, who were tired of the sprints coming at the end of ten minutes of faithful clock watching, were responsible for the various times indicated by the unpredictable clocks throughout the building. The first Student Council-sponsored dance, the Record Dance, was a victory celebration of the Tigers' defeat that afternoon of favored Anacostia, 40-6. Music was provided by shellac records, and paper records served as decorations. At one of the most popular assemblies of the year, the Army Ground Forces Band presented a very enjoyable program which included a clever arrangement of "Dry Bones."

November found many seniors spending long hours at the library desperately trying to write their term papers. Wilson-Western rivalry was at a high when they clashed on Central's gridiron. The half-time skit presented by the cheerleaders accurately prophesied the Raiders' defeat, and the Wilsonites left the stadium triumphantly when the Tigers emerged victorious.

The efforts of the faculty, cast, and stage crew made the production of this year's operetta, Victor Herbert's The Red Mill, one of the best. Phyllis Posnick, Patsy Herman, Rolland Hurst, and Dave Parker sang the leads; a large red mill placed the scene as old Holland. By conquering Chamberlain, the Tigers won the league, giving them a chance to make their first attempt to win a football championship.

The day before the much-welcomed Thanksgiving vacation, Dr. Bruce Martin of Children's Hospital spoke at the Thanksgiving Assembly. After the assembly, the annual collection was held for those so much less fortunate. More than two hundred dollars was collected and taken to Children's Hospital where it was used to help relieve the children's monotonous hospital stay.

Undoubtedly the biggest event of the year occurred on the night of Friday, November 25 at Griffith Stadium during the first and heaviest snow storm of the season. Few will ever forget that that night Wilson defeated Tech 21-20 in a thrilling game to win the Interhigh football championship. Despite the bitter cold, neither the cheerleaders nor Donny Hall, who was dressed in a tiger suit, needed to pep-up the rooters; most of them stood cheering for the last exciting quarter. When the final whistle was blown, Wilsonites were in wild jubilation over the victory. At the victory assembly, the following Monday, Wilson was presented the Almas trophy, and Leo Speros and Don Meaney, the co-captains, pinned another claw on our Tiger.

"THE NIGHT!"

A BIG GAME

INTENSE INTEREST
DOGGONI

On the first Saturday in December, the Tigers, competing for the D. C. football crown met defeat in an upset by Gonzaga. One cold morning, members of the Choir got up before dawn and went down town to sing Christmas carols over the radio. The following day, the Orchestra presented a musical program for the school.

The most impressive assembly of the year was the traditional Christmas Candlelight Service which was presented on the day before the long-awaited vacation began. Carols were sung by the Choir the Girls' Glee Club, and the audience; the Orchestra played Christmas music, and the "story of Christmas" was depicted by tableaux. The religious part of the program was concluded by the Choir's rendition of Handel's "Hallelujah Chorus." Santa Claus's distribution of toys to the children of the faculty was quite hilarious. There seemed to be more alumni around, roaming the halls and disrupting classes, than students, many of whom were conspicuously absent.

That night the last Wilson dance of 1949 and the first of the Christmas social season, the Santa Swing, was held. It was sponsored by the "W" Club, which miraculously transformed the gym with Christmas trees and other Yuletide decorations. Every one was there, from sophomores to alums, dancing, talking, and admiring the football trophy, which was on display.

Most of the students who returned to school on January 3 claimed that they merely wanted to recover from the effects of the holidays' social whirl. As if to avenge their football set-back by the Colts, the Tigers won their opening interhigh basketball game by beating Coolidge 56-42. Members of the Woodrow Wilson Players presented two plays which were written by W. W. alumni. One dealt with a subject close to many seniors' hearts, the dismal prospect of being accepted by a college.

New members of the Honor Society were inducted, and awards were made to members of the February class. At the farewell assembly, the graduating class left the school to the June class who suddenly realized how imminent their own departure from W. W. was. The Class Night program and the Baccalaureate Service were held; the senior prom went on and the class received their diplomas, leaving the school which had made such an important impression upon them.

"SLIPPING OUT"

"INSPECTION"

"CONFUSION"

"THEY'RE OFF"

An assembly was presented by the Choir, Orchestra, and several musically talented students. A recording was made of this program and was later played on the radio in the Hamilton National Bank Music Contest. Program cards were made out, and trial schedules were held in 79-degree record-breaking weather. January ended with the inevitable semester tests and report cards.

The Choir presented the Lincoln Cantata in commemoration of Lincoln's birthday. Anacostia didn't seem to harbor any grudge because of their basketball defeat at the claws of the Tigers; their band presented a very enjoyable assembly for the Wilsonites. As a result of the Student Council elections, Preston Kavanagh was elected president, and Neeley Matthews was elected vice president. The Talent Show proved that Wilson could still hold its place among the most talented.

The coal strike forced the faculty, students, and staff to endure two very cold weeks and the resulting colds. Many seniors took advantage of the holiday on Washington's birthday to cram for the college boards which were coming rapidly and terrifyingly into very close view. Students attended the various career conferences to learn more about the vocational fields that interested them.

The record-breaking results of the Country Fair enabled Wilson to purchase an oxygen tent for Children's Hospital, in addition to providing support for three war orphans. Everyone had a gala time at the many features which included food booths, and games of skill and chance. The new custom of having a junior boy and girl reign over the Fair was inaugurated this year.

Senior class officers were elected, and the senior class committees were formed. Music at the Spring Swing was provided by John Merrill, whose popular trio was the hit of many of last year's programs. The spring sports program began successfully when the baseball team defeated St. Albans, and the track team won the meet with Coolidge.

The Easter Service featured Easter songs sung by the Choir with organ accompaniment, scriptural readings, songs sung by the audience, and a violin solo of The Palms played by Mr. Essers. Though many Wilsonites returned with cases of sunburn or spring fever, most of them benefited considerably from the ten-day Easter vacation.

The popular Junior Prom brought spring weather with it at last. The following week, an all-star cast presented Oscar Wilde's The Importance of Being Earnest, as this year's Spring Play. The annual Student Day showed many of the students who replaced the faculty and staff that the grass isn't always "greener on the other side of the fence."

May Day came with various gymnastics, dances, and sports events, the may pole, and the crowning of the May queen. The cadets began drilling even harder for the company competitive drills. The choral groups presented the annual Spring Concert. Thoughts wandered farther and farther from the classrooms, and finally the seniors were given outdoor study halls. The impressive Memorial Service Assembly made everyone think more about the significance of Memorial Day. Yearbooks were distributed and signed by friends and fellow-sufferers.

As the Senior Awards and Farewell Assemblies went, and Class Night with its supper, play, will, and prophecies came, the seniors realized that an important chapter in their lives was coming to a close. The Baccalaureate Service was held on the day after the Senior Prom where they danced their last dances and sang their last "Sons of Wilson" as Wilsonites. On June 14, the seniors received their diplomas and left Wilson with a store of fond memories and the preparation of true education.

Organizations

There are many organizations in our community that work to improve the lives of our citizens. These organizations provide a wide range of services, from social services to health care. Some of the most prominent organizations in our community include the United Way, the Red Cross, and the American Red Cross. These organizations have been instrumental in providing aid and support to those in need, both locally and internationally. Their dedication and commitment to service have made a significant impact on our community, and we are grateful for their ongoing efforts.

NEELY/FAVER

Student Council

The natural outgrowth of our democratic system of government, the Student Council represents the student body. Under the direction of the President, this group is active in sponsoring dances, running the Country Fair to support our charities and thinking up ways to improve Wilson. The council, made up of the section presidents, is a working example of representative government.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society is about the most inactive club in school, yet there is no club which people are more anxious to join. To become a member, a student must be of the 6th or 8th semesters and be in the upper half of his class. The members are chosen by the Faculty on the basis of Scholarship, Character, Leadership, and Service.

Woodrow Wilson '50

The purpose of a yearbook is to put down on paper at least an idea of what we did for one year. It is a blue print of all the fun we had, a stepping stone into the land of memory. We, the staff of Woodrow Wilson '50, have tried to make this book just that—a blue print of a happy year. We hope that in days to come it will help you to remember Woodrow Wilson High School as it was in 1950.

Red Cross Council

Composed of representatives from each section and of interested volunteers, the Junior Red Cross Council is a service organization dedicated to the service of others. This year they sponsored a big drive and collected $855.85. They also filled 400 gift boxes the equivalent to one school chest around Christmas time to send overseas. They also viewed slides on international art this year, and were instrumental in getting the Junior Red Cross Journal more widely distributed.

Boys' Glee Club

All boys who like to sing and can at least carry a tune get together once a week for an early morning stretch of their vocal cords. The informal singing of various songs furnishes an outlet for musical interest. A majority of the members also sing in the choir. This year a swarm of new singers swelled the ranks of the club.

Sergeant J. Newton Lewis

Sergeant Thomas M. Arehart

This year Wilson's Cadet Corps suffered a great loss. Captain Paul S. Pitcher, the Military Instructor, has gone. Under his supervision last year, the Cadet Corps placed second in the Map Problems Competition, second in the Battalion Competition, and easily captured the highly coveted first and second places in the Company Competitive. Again this year our Cadet Corps will try at least to equal, if not to surpass, its past record. With the guidance of our new Military Instructor, Major Mervich, and under the competent control of the company officers, the whole battalion will achieve these goals.

I should like to express my thanks to the Cadets on my staff and in the companies for their excellent work and to wish the officers and men of next year's Cadet Corps the best of luck.

MAJOR EDMUND H. FELDMAN
Commanding

Annual Battalion Competitive Drill
April 3, 1950

Company B

Who's going to win the Competitive Drill? B. B. B. Company, FIRST PLACE! How many times have you heard men of B Company chant that call? With a history making victory of June, 1949 under its belt, the Company has worked all year for another such victory.

In fact, in spite of a drop in enrollment which brought the Corps' strength to as low as it has ever been at Wilson, B Company has continued with its finely developed esprit de corps. Squad drills, outings, parties and games were well attended by all.

Even with the advent of a new military instructor, the year passed very smoothly. The new schedule set up for the Cadet Corps permitted classes in military customs, courtesy and practices, as well as map reading and marksmanship. The added classes enhanced the Corps' usefulness and interest.

Special commendations go to the men in the Company for their fine work and especially to my lieutenants and First Sergeant for their willing cooperation. It will always give me pleasure in future years to say that I am an alumnus not only of Wilson, but of its finest organization, B Company, Sixth Regiment.

Company C

During my three years in the Sixth Regiment I have seen "C" Company rise from sixteenth place to second place in the company competitive drill and I am sure at the time I write this that the old battle cry of "C" COMPANY, FIRST PLACE" will soon be realized. During the course of the cadet year many things have helped to bring the men of our company closer together. We have had bud games, parties, picnics and outings as well as the many hours of drill and practice for the competitive dress. All of these things have helped each of us to realize one of the fundamentals of community living, the part played by the individual in all the group activities. The spirit of team work which has developed this year in Company "C" is sure to carry it to the top and keep it there.

As my cadet career draws to a close I wish to thank each one of you, and especially the lieutenants and first-sergeant, for the fine job turned in by each of you. To my successor, I wish the best of luck and may you bring "C" COMPANY FIRST PLACE IN 1951.

CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Wilson 21

Tech 20

NOVEMBER 25

At about 7:15 P.M. the Tigers entered Griffith Stadium during the season's first snow fall. They took the field with a determination and spirit that made them play quite a ball game. The first quarter wasn't very old when Speros swept off left tackle for 43 yards, setting the ball on the Tech 20. Three plays later, the Wilson stands were in an uproar as Speros scored from the five. Dick Sebastian kicked the extra point and it was 7-0. Leo fired a 35 yard touchdown toss to Pete Haley in the second quarter and the Tigers went into the locker room with a 14 point lead. Tech hadn't given up yet, and with the fourth period only two minutes gone, they scored their 15th point on a 60 yard pass from Ray Fox to Richie Gaskell. However, the score remained 14-13 Wilson until Speros scored another one in the fourth period. Dick did it again and the game was on ice. Several desperation passes and an interference penalty gave Tech another touchdown which was futile, and Wilson had its first Interhigh football crown.

CITY TITLE GAME

WILSON 7

GONZAGA 12

DECEMBER 3

On the Tigers' second journey to Griffith Stadium in two weeks, their net yardage gained in the first half amounted to about 5 yards. Gonzaga got a 7-0 halftime lead on Billy Haley's 20 yard run. Gonzaga's net yardage for the first half was almost 200 yards. In spite of playing like cellar dwellers, Wilson still found themselves ahead in the fourth quarter when Speros tossed 30 yards to Tom Sandoz for a touchdown. The Gonzaga fumble which set up this score was repaid in full a few moments later when Gonzaga recovered a Wilson fumble on the Tigers' 25 and went on to score.

Now let's go back and take a look at the six Interhigh games which led up to the title games.

Wilson 0

Coolidge 6

When Referee Sweeney tooted his whistle to open Wilson's home grid season, over 1000 Wilson students were sitting in a stadium flooded with sunshine. The long awaited break came in the third quarter, but the Colts got it. Carl Prigg was unable to get away a fourth-down punt, and the Coolidge boys happily took over on the Wilson 20. Wilson receivers dropped several touchdown passes, and Leo Speros fumbled on the Colt 1. This ended Wilson's only defeat of the season.

FIRST TEAM

EASTERN 13

OCTOBER 7

Wilson traveled over to play Eastern, and on the second play from scrimmage the Tigers began to make over the Rebels as Sporos dashed down the sidelines on a 40 yard pass. Sebastian kicked his first of four extra points in five tries and Wilson led 13-0. After Eastern had scored, Sporos scored again by going 60 yards off tackle. . . . Haley and Brinson each tallied on passes in the final period.

WILSON 40

ANACOSTIA 6

OCTOBER 21

The Tigers took the field against the then first place Anacostia. Brinson scored four touchdowns, with two of them coming on long passes from Sporos. . . . Tom Sandoz also got into the scoring column as he caught another touchdown pass from Sporos, who was picked as the player of the week by the Tar Heel after this game. . . . Dick Sebastian made four extra points in five tries with the sixth lost on a bad pass from center. . . . Tom Whelan scored Wilson's last touchdown on good old "71." . . . For the first time Wilson was breathing the rarefied air of first place in the Division I standings.

ROOSEVELT 0

NOVEMBER 4

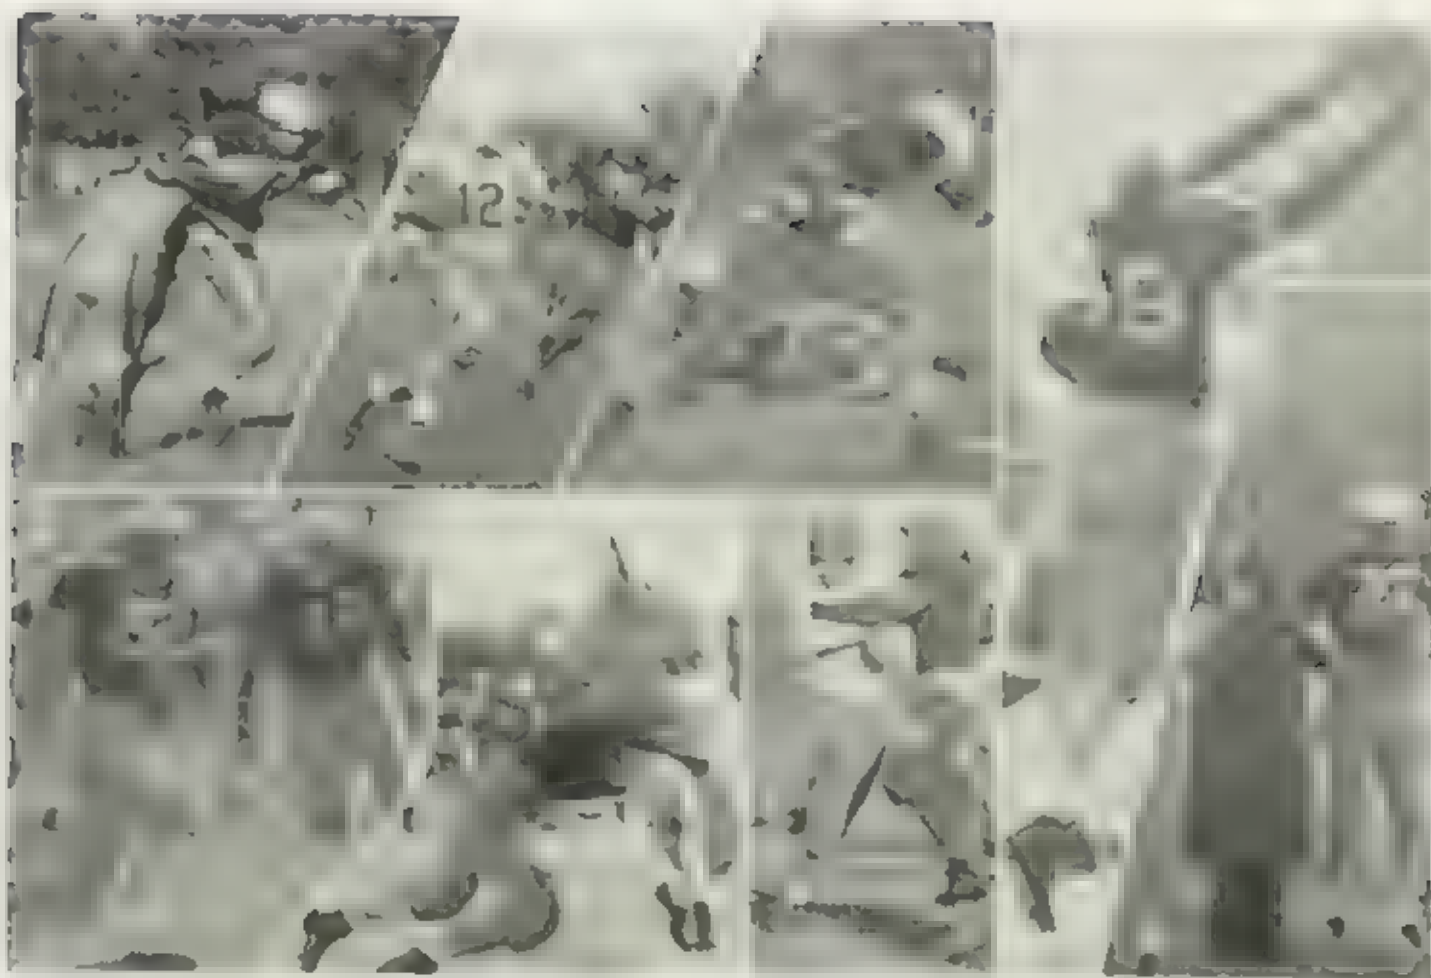

The Roughs were having a pretty rough time. This was very evident as the Roosevelt boys never got past Wilson's 15 yard line as they were shut out 26-0. Leo Sporos made two touchdowns in the second period and then gave the ball to Sandoz and Brinson for touchdowns in the third period.

WESTERN 7

NOVEMBER 11

This was the big one. The Tigers hadn't beaten Western since 1945, but the Tigers clawed the Raiders on Armistice Day. This rivalry renewal turned out to be a pretty rough game. Wilson scored in the first period on a pass. Sandoz did the cheering. Preston Kavanagh became a man of distinction in the second period when he ran sixty yards for a touchdown with an intercepted pass. That was two for the Wilson center. Sporos wound up the scoring by dashing around R.F. on a 20 yard jaunt.

CHAMBERLAIN 6

NOVEMBER 18

The Volts scored first on the fifth play of the game. . . . Two touchdowns came Wilson's way in the second period, courtesy of Speros. . . . The second came on a 60 yard sprint. . . . George Warring applied the clincher in the third period. . . . The next game was the Interhigh championship game.

WILSON 12, FAIRFAX 0; WILSON 21, ST. JOHN'S 19;
WILSON 13, GEO. PREP. 0

For the first time in many a moon, Wilson won all their regular season league games.

In the season's opener they shut-out Fairfax in a night game over in Virginia. . . . All of the scoring took place in the fourth quarter with Leo Speros plunging over from the one for the first score, and Lee Brinson scoring the other with an intercepted pass.

Following the loss to Coolidge, the Tigers humbled St. John's by scoring the winning touchdown on the first play from scrimmage. . . . With only seconds remaining, Speros passed to Pete Haley for the winning touchdown. . . . Dick Sebastian's three perfect placements provided the final margin of victory.

Played on a cloudy, windy, misty, rainy day, the Georgetown Prep game proved to be a rather easy victory. . . . A Speros to Haley pass clicked for the first score in the second period. . . . Tom Sandoz scored the other on a five yard punt in the third period. . . . Prep didn't penetrate Wilson's 15 yard line.

All in all, it was a highly successful season that brought Wilson its first Inter-high championship.

VARSIITY BASKETBALL

Basketball

Just as Wilson's basketball team was beginning to play ball as they were expected to do all season long, the school was shocked when several squad members were declared ineligible and all of the team's victories were forfeited.

This discovery came three or four days before the Western game which was to decide the remaining Division I playoff berth. After the forfeiture Wilson was out of the race, but Western could still clinch the playoff berth by beating Wilson. Otherwise they would be thrown into a tie with Chamberlain.

For a while it appeared as if this was the case as Western took an early lead and still retained a 4 point margin going into the fourth and final period. Then the Tigers came to life, scoring 19 points to completely humble Western, 63-48. Four Tigers, Leo Speros, Everett Eyrson, Don Scott, and Pete Haley hit the double figure scoring column.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL TEAM

Standings: Bob Barron, Max John Harrington, John Bauersteld, Bill Johnson, Don Kurth, Larry Harry, Buddy Warwood, George Bailey, Tony Kupka, Coach
Sitting: Bill Blackburn, John Alexander, Conrad Posey, Dick Semple, George Otero, Paul Manoukian.

J. V. Basketball

The Junior Varsity Basketball team played nine games emerging victoriously from six of them to wind up their season with a good 66.7 average. Outstanding on the Jay Vee squad was very short George Otero, who threw in 108 points for a 12 point average per game. Otero used his speed to fake and confuse opposition, and then he would let fly with his deadly jump shot which hit home many times.

Other outstanding players included John Alexander, Conrad Posey, Paul Manoukian, Buddy Warwood and Johnny Bauersteld. These fellows and others should provide the backbone of next year's varsity squad.

The J.V.s opened their season by nipping out B.C.C. 36-33 at Wilson. They then knocked down Episcopal twice by scores of 44-28 and 36-36 before losing to Central 32-26. Getting back in their winning ways, they smashed Georgetown Prep 56-23 and then beat B.C.C. again 44-25 with Otero hitting for 14 points.

After losing to Central 38-27 and Coolidge, 69-37, the Jayvees concluded their season by presenting Coach Tony Kupka with a 31-24 victory over Prep.

WINNING INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL TEAM

Front Row: Joe Condon, Pete Popenoe, Preston Locke, Ellis Muther, Al Solomon, Bob Scheele, Rear Row: Ty Self, Bill Russell, Alan Berman.

Intramural Basketball

Thirty-three teams answered the bell as Wilson launched an extensive basketball intramural program on November 7, 1969 under the direction of Mr. Neffert. On November 10 after a games 200 was awarded Intramural basketball champ 200 defeated 200 in the final game. Dave Watson and Harry Evans led the winners with 14 and 10 points respectively, while George Otero paced the losers with 10.

WRESTLING SQUAD

Second Row: George Nazarian, Phil Oliver, James Peters, Bill Johnson, Steve Trimble, Verne Spangenberg, Herb Griffith, Dick Brown, Charles Pardoe, Joe Carlo, coach

Third Row: Jetty Mayer, Herman Rosentfeld, Rafael Aveleyra, Curtis Roberts, John Aylor

Wrestling

An innovation this year at Wilson was wrestling squad. In early February about 40 boys turned out to learn some of the fundamentals of the mat sport. The wrestlers had one informal match with St. Johns. All of this year's squad will return next year and plans for next season's schedule are already in the making. Coach Joe Carlo hopes to see plenty of improvement next year.

Seated: Bob Schen, Otto Hetzel, Joel Smilow, Tom Bradford, Bill Owen, Bruce Gustafson, Walter Schiff, Tom Herren
Standing: Stanley Whitten, Steve Karpman, John Herren, Bill Nolte, John Kopf, John Moore, Larry Levitan, Bob Hubbard, David Decker, Tommy Leonard, Pete Wirth, Manager

Tennis

The tennis team had only one returning letterman in Bill Owen, but prospects for a good season were still very bright. Two sophomores, Tom Bradford and Bruce Gustafson beat out Owen for the two top single positions so the team appeared to have depth and strength. Both Bradford and Gustafson came to Wilson with City rankings. The rest of the team was still in doubt, but it appeared that Walter Schiff, Bob Hubbard, Otto Hetzel, and John Kopf would do most of the swinging.

Golf

After winning their opening match from Central 9-0, the golf team was looking toward the possibility of another golf championship. In the Tigers' second match they came out on the short end of a $6\frac{1}{2}$ - $2\frac{1}{2}$ score to Bethesda-Chevy Chase. The rest of the schedule looks like this:

Track

On the 31st of March Wilson's cindersmen coached by Sam Feller, opened their schedule by trouncing Coolidge 71½ to 46½. Leading point getter of this initial meet was Chris Kerr, who scored 12 points by winning both hurdle events and being first second in the high jump. In the same high jump event Dick Semple, Wilson sophomore, gave a sample of what can be expected from him by jumping 6' 2", one inch short of the Interhigh record.

Paul Sachs scored firsts in the 20 and 40 dashes while Carl Prigg, only returning player, led point getter from last year's Interhigh meet, easily captured the pole vault. Dave Andrews won the broad jump and George Ward won the mile. Andrews also took second in the 100 yard dash. Dale Duvall won the shot with a toss of 40 feet 3¼ inches.

Other point getters were Malcolm MacArthur and Verne Spangenburg in the 440, Frank Caldwell in the 880, Gregory Fuller and James Morris in the mile, Terry Wilson and Don Rich in the pole vault, Hank Otterdinger in the 1500 and Prigg again in the broad jump.

It was hoped that these fellows and many others would help Wilson to get back the track crown which they wore for five years in a row before finishing second to Eastern in the past two seasons. The rest of the track schedule was as follows:

April 8—George Washington Relays

April 21—Roosevelt

April 26—Western

May 6—Maryland Interscholastics

May 12—Anacostia & George Washington

May 19-20—Woodrow Wilson Metro Meet

May 24 & 26—Interhigh

Baseball

With 1949's first string battery of Everett Eynon, returning, pitching to Don Hall, returning, prospects for the Cliff Netherton coached 1950 team were very good.

Other returning lettermen who were expected to see plenty of action were pitchers Don MacDonald and Mark Howard, shortstop Dick Harris, and first baseman Preston Kavanagh. Kavanagh scored both of Wilson's runs when the Tigers beat St. Albans 2-0 behind the pitching of Eynon in their season's opener on March 31. Tom Whelan, sophomore, the only freshman, got Wilson's only hit in this game. Leo Speros with two previous letters in baseball injured his ankle in practice, but it was hoped that he would return later in the season.

Others seeing lots of service were Bob Fitzgerald, Dick Sebastian, Keith Eynon, Tom Sandoz and Don Scott. The remaining schedule went something like this:

April 4—Montgomery-Blair	May 2—Bell
April 5—George Washington	May 5—Western
April 6—St. Johns	May 9—McKinley
April 19—Bethesda-Chevy Chase	May 12—Coolidge
April 21—Roosevelt	May 16—Central
April 25—Eastern	May 18—Anacostia
April 28—Chamberlain
